

Lead $\text{♩} = 112$

1. In twen-ty six-ty five, when the world runs dry, we
 3. In twen-ty six-ty nine, when the first of us has died, we'll

4 will have grown old and we can't de - ny. And Lon-don is con - hum a-long these songs and we'll look back and smile. And Lon-don is con -

7 si - dered me-di - ter - ra - nean. And e - very Tuesday evening, precise-si - dered me-di - ter - ra - nean.

11 ly at six, we'll sit upon our porch, and play some bridge. While Ven-ice is a 15 new di-ving lo - ca - tion.

prechorus with hear-ing aids and dent - ures

20 we'll sing on and on, assum-ing our band will still ex-ist.

chorus We

26 play the same tune, be-cause it's all we re - mem-ber We play the same song, and think it's 29 brand new. It is a boon, a lucky fate we will for-get soon. It is a gift, the 35 only one we never would have missed. It is a boon, Who would have guessed?